Words to the Wise

To the graduating class of 2000:

Know your weaknesses well enough to call them by their names. Don't settle for things because you don't feel like being a pioneer that day. Don't hold the door open for ignorance, for it's all around us. Don't take for granted your freedoms and advantages. Don't worry about things that you have no control over — because, in the end, it makes no difference whether you worried for ten minutes or ten hours.

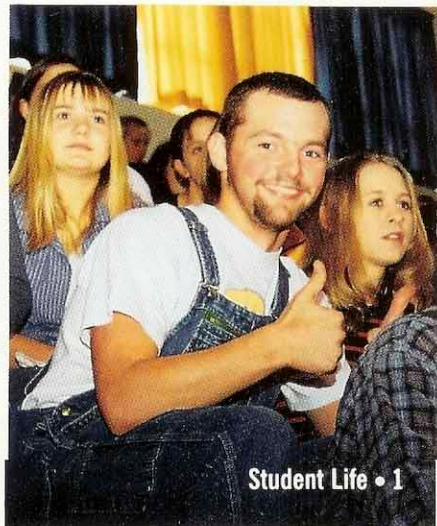

In the words of Janis Joplin, who may not be known as wise, but she obviously knew something: "Don't compromise yourself; it's all you've got."

— Wendy French, Senior Class President

A photograph of three cheerleaders sitting on the floor. The cheerleader on the left is wearing a red sweatshirt and blue jeans, smiling and waving with her right hand. The cheerleader in the middle is wearing a white t-shirt and blue jeans, smiling and waving with her right hand. The cheerleader on the right is wearing a white t-shirt and blue jeans, smiling and making a peace sign with her right hand. They are all looking towards the camera.

Girls' State And Boys' State

Leanne Tucsnak And Gary Jenkins

Leanne and Gary were selected by the faculty to represent RHS at Girls' State and Boys' State during the summer of 1999. Leanne, who was sponsored by Decatur County Bank, attended Girls' State at MTSU, while Tennessee Tech was the site of Boys' State activities; Gary's sponsor was Citizens State Bank. As they learned about government through participation in the democratic process, Leanne and Gary represented RHS very well.

Academics

Academic Teams

RHS academic teams brought home 2 out of 8 trophies, as well as 3 individual awards, that were given at the April 1999 College Preparedness Competition held at Jackson State. Pictured at the back are the winners of the 9th-10th grade English trophy: Danny Ecoff, Brad Dawson, Sarah Myracle, Corey Cummings, and Misty Evans. Seated in front is Brent Lackey, who won the 2nd place overall individual award in speech, as well as the Speech trophy, along with 1999 senior Chrystal Maire, who received the 1st place overall individual award. Nathan Hamm, a 1999 graduate, earned the 3rd place overall individual award in computer information systems. Way to go, RHS!

Writers' Camp

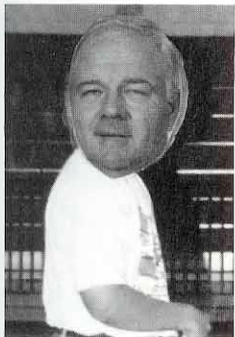

Nathan Austin, 2000 senior, was accepted into the summer 1999 writers' camp held at Rhodes College. Here are Nathan's impressions of his experience:

Rhodes College was a very intriguing place of study with a sense of Gothic architecture with low-pitched bells sounding every hour. Stained-glass windows covered every opening.

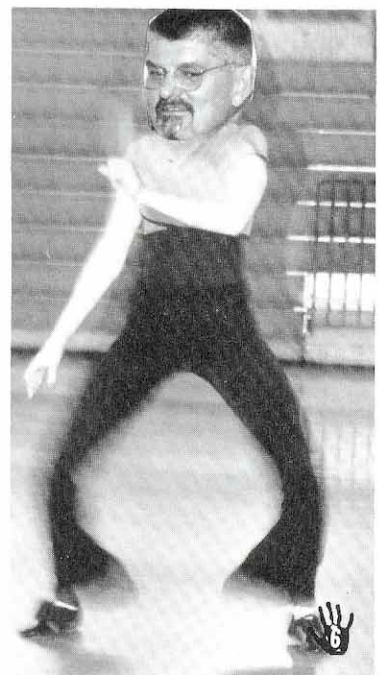

Writers' camp offered a variety of courses — poetry, creative writing, Shakespeare, psychology, etc. Naturally, I chose poetry. The poetry class taught me to deepen my sense of imagery. What is the true meaning of things? Do things really have one answer and that is all? Writing, to me, is all about interpretation.

Let yourself dive into the infinite depths of your unique imagination and let it release the answers. This is Sled Dog signing out ...

Cowboy's Prayer

Heavenly Father, we pause; mindful of the many blessings you have bestowed upon us. We ask that you be with us at this rodeo and we pray that you will guide us in the arena of life.

We don't ask for special favors. We don't ask to draw around a chute-fighting horse, or never break a barrier. Nor do we ask for all daylight runs or not to draw a steer that lays.

Help us, Lord, to live our lives in such a manner that when we make that final ride to that country up there where the grass grows lush and green, stirrup-high, and water runs cool, clear, and deep — That you as our last and final Judge will tell us that our entry fee is paid. AMEN.

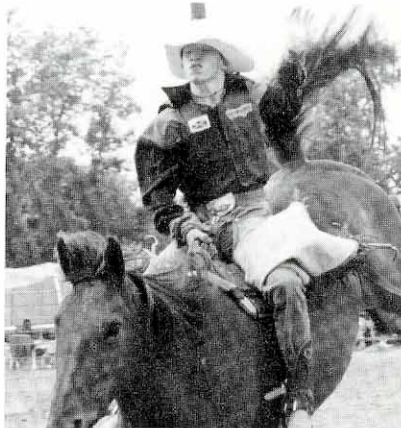

Congratulations, Tracy, on making the All-Star Team.

Jamey Fisher

Dearest Jamey,

From the time Granddaddy Coleman told your Daddy he'd never see the day he would be as good-looking as you when you were in the hospital nursery, till your Senior year, we have been as proud of you as any parents could be. When we see the Panthers kneel in prayer or hear some of your favorite hymns sounding after the game, We give God the glory for your being a part. Granddaddy and Grandmother Fisher also share in this feeling of tremendous pride in the way you have grown up. Whether it's getting the team's spirit up during a football game or filling the pulpit, you do it all with such a serious effort. As you leave our nest to fly off on your own, we recognize that you have been leaving for 17 years now. It's with a mixture of sadness, pride, and anticipation that we send you off into the world. May God keep you and bless you as you keep Him in the center of your life.

Love,
Daddy, Momma, and Torie

Ben Gilbert

Ben,

We are proud of you. We're proud of your kindness, your thoughtfulness, and what you stand for. Always stand for what you know is right, no matter what comes your way. Keep God first in your life and everything else will fall into place. We love you very much.

Love,
Daddy and Mama

Clint,

On that October day, little did we know what joy God had in store for us. You have taken many difficult rides in your life, but you always got back up, rode hard and finished the task. You have become such a fine young man and we are so proud of you. So, as you ride off in the future, remember to saddle up and face what's beyond you with that great determination that is in your heart.

We Love You!

Dear Sherri,

We have watched you grow from a tiny, cuddly baby to a beautiful young lady. We have followed your development from the first nerve-racking day of kindergarten to the final days of high school. To say that we are proud of your accomplishments would be an understatement. We are pleased beyond words. As you go forth into young adulthood, we wish you good health, much happiness, and great success in all of your dreams.

Love Always,

"Our 1st Little Grandchild"

You've always been very special. We have watched you grow from a beautiful baby to a wonderful young lady. You have blessed our hearts in every way. You have been a perfect role model for your sisters and brother. We hope your future will be filled with many fulfilled dreams. Thank you, Hayley, for allowing us to be a part of your life. We have enjoyed everything from your "birth" day to your high school graduation!

Keep God as your pilot and we know your future will be bright.

We love you,
Pops and Moms

At 11:42 on April 1982, we felt as though we were the happiest people in the world! We just knew that no one had ever felt like this before and that you were very special and God-Given! We have watched you grow from an adorable baby to an absolutely wonderful young lady. You have blessed this family every day of your life in one way or another. You have been a perfect role model for your younger sisters and brother — you have always been there for them as a big sister and a "fill-in" mom. Hayley, we love you more than life itself — more than you will ever know. Thank you so very much for being such a wonderful daughter — never giving us any trouble and for being "perfect" in every way! It's time now for you to reach the goals you have set for yourself. There's no doubt in our minds that you will have no trouble reaching them. As you continue your life outside of our home, remember to take one day at a time and to always keep God first. Consider your decisions carefully, and, as usual, you — HAYLEY VISE — will succeed in everything you desire to do.

We love you, our #1 daughter.

Mom and Dad

Philippians 4:13: I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

It's hard to believe you are graduating; it seems like only yesterday you were graduating from kindergarten.

We know you are the most beautiful and intelligent in your class, you have a good personality and disposition.

You will be a success at anything you do. Wishing you the best in the future.

Love,
Grandmother and Granddaddy

Hayley Dawn Vise

It is so hard to believe you're a Senior. We have had some great times, hopefully many more to come. Thanks for all the BIG SIS talks and for the guys you've passed along!! Even though we may have our differences every once in a while, I'm really going to miss having you around. Good luck in college and with your many goals! Thanks for all the fulfillment you've brought to my life! Always look to God to guide you along the hard journey you may face.

Love Ya,
Hannah

We could say so many things about our relationships and what you've come to mean to us —
the love you've shown.
the times you've cheered us on,
the friend you've been,
in good times and in bad —
but it would all add up to these simple words:
WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE OUR BIG SISTER!

Thanks for always being there for me!
Stay beautiful and sweet and have a
BLAST in college!

Love Always,
Jonna

Thanks for always being my big Sis! Good luck in college.

Love,
Blayne

Will I see you another day when you start college? I love you and I will miss you.

Lee Wyatt

The day you were born, we were all so excited. It seems like only yesterday we were holding and rocking the little brown-eyed, blonde-haired boy. We can't believe that time has passed so fast. Our memories of you from the strong-willed little tot to the handsome young man you have become, are many. You had to overcome many obstacles that we thought were too big, but being the person you are, you made it without any doubts. When you were just a little boy, we became best friends and played all the games that Grandparents can. You are Grandchild #4, but you know how to score with Granddaddy and Me. Before we could imagine, you had started to school. We missed you so much, but you have fulfilled all of our dreams of being a good student and the star of the team. You have made us so proud of the fine young man you have become. Every day you keep growing nearer and dearer to our hearts. We wish You Good Health and Happiness in the years to come.

From the Heart of Your Parents!

It is really hard to believe 18 years has passed so quickly. Yes, you were a very special gift from God to our family. We are so very proud of you and your accomplishments. Over the years we have watched you grow into a handsome, young gentleman, and you have always filled our lives with happiness as well as much love. Very soon you will be making decisions which will affect your future. Remember life is what you make of it, keep God first and you can accomplish whatever you want in life. You're everything we could have wished for in a son. Always remember we love you dearly and will always be here for you!

So many things come to mind when we try to find the words to tell you how proud we are of you and all you've accomplished.

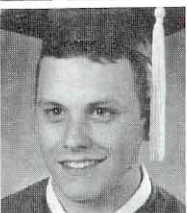

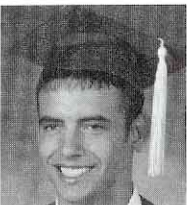

We've loved you with all our hearts ever since the day you were born, but every day — in your own way — you give us reason to love you more.

Of all the thoughts we would like to share with you and all the things we would like to say, the most important thing is this:

May every one of your tomorrows be as beautiful as you are.

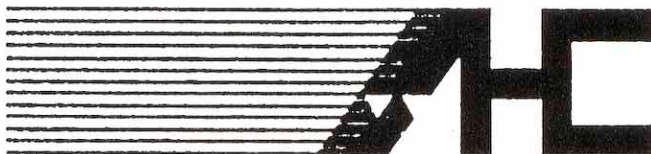

With all our love,
Granny, Papa, David, Paula & LaChanda

If

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired of waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
If you can think — and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by Knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!
— Rudyard Kipling

Jeremy Clay Jones

Into our life bounced a beautiful, blue-eyed, red-headed baby boy, a child the doctors said we'd never have. You came into our life to join your big sis, Carla. At age 2 we were blessed again with your little brother, Jody Lee. Jeremy, you have been a wonderful blessing from God to your Dad and me — a true miracle from God, when you were given to us. Tears of joy fell from our eyes when you were born.

Memories run quickly through my mind, from days filled with reading stories to you and Carla, watching you smile, laugh and play, and love your sis. You crawled, walked, and talked, and were into everything. There has never been a dull moment with you around. So bright you were, with intelligence shining in your eyes, as you followed Carla every step she took.

When you were two, a little brother came into your life. Son, I want you to know that you loved him so much. Every day became important, filled with memories of joy. Words cannot describe how his loss in our life has changed destiny. His presence is always in your heart, even though the bench is empty. He runs every play you run, either on the field or in your heart, as your big sis cheers you on in the stands and in her heart.

From playing little trucks and cars with Carla, to being your Dad's little grease monkey on his 18-wheeler, from T-ball through little league, karate, piano, church choir, and football — many miles did we travel, just you and me, and, oh, the talks we had. Big shoulders did you often have to have, through all the painful blows you took. We tried to teach you the important rules of life and how to be strong, but our proudest day of all was when you accepted God into your life.

From Kindergarten to Senior Year, the years have passed so fast; no prouder parents can be found than the ones that root for you. Now as you are one of the last to walk the halls of the BIG BLUE, go forward into the future and God be with you, in everything you say and do. Allow His guiding light, and our prayers, to be your beacon. As we proudly call you our son, go forward into the future, and know that through Him, all things are possible.

We love you very much and pray that your future will be filled with great expectations being fulfilled right before our eyes. YOU CAN BE ANYTHING YOU WANT TO BE!

Love, Mom, Dad, Carla, and Jody Lee

Jeremy Clay Jones

To my dear bubba, Jeremy Clay:

I remember how bad I wanted a sister when my mom was pregnant with you, thinking it would be great having my own playmate to play dolls and house with. It wasn't the way I planned; you turned out to be a red-haired little boy that I played dolls with, ball with, in the dirt with, and got into trouble with.

It's been eighteen years since I followed Dad down the hospital hallway to see Momma and my little "sister." It took time to adjust that you were a little brother and not the sister I had planned on. Through the years we have created a sibling bond that I don't think I could have had with a sister. Even though we've fought like cats and dogs, we've been there for each other.

Jeremy, I know I've always been protective of you even when you were smaller; kind of hard to believe, as much as we fought. When we lost Jody Lee, I became even more watchful over you. I can not even stand the thought of losing you too. That's why every time we leave each other I tell you a thousand times that I love you and to be careful and behave. I've tried to protect you from the cruel ways of life. I had a better way of doing it when you were smaller; I'd just give people evil looks if they mistreated you. Just remember my philosophy, "What goes around comes around."

I can't believe that you will be graduating here before long. Seems like yesterday I was helping you onto the "cheese wagon" to go to kindergarten. You have made me very proud of you and proud to be your sister. I have watched you go through so many milestones in your life. Watching you play football has been one that I am grateful to have been a part of. In my eyes you are a great football player. Your first touchdown against Bolivar, during your sophomore year, filled my heart with so much joy. I loved watching you tackle those boys and run the ball for touchdowns. Due to circumstances beyond your control, you haven't got to play as much your last two years, but you are still a hero in my eyes.

You are going to go into a world where you have to face things on your own. You can make it and you have the potential to have a rich life. Believe in yourself as I have always believed in you. I have watched you achieve things that took hard work. Well, Bubs, the work never stops. Keep your head up and live your dreams. Always know that I will be here to help you out and I'll be a friend. Always know that I will help you if I can, and don't be afraid to ask if you ever need anything.

Good luck, Little Brother, in your future and all it might hand you. Keep God in sight and He'll be your guiding light. I love you, Bubs, and wish you only the best. Good luck and congratulations on all of your achievements.

Love your sis,
Carla

Dear Les,

It's been fun watching you grow from a precious little girl to a beautiful young lady. We admire the wonderful person you have become. Congratulations on all your accomplishments. We are very proud of you. May all your dreams come true and may you find happiness in all you do. Always remember how special you are to us and how special you were to Granddaddy Mack and Granny.

*We love you,
Freddy, Renee, Megan, and Jon*

To a very important person in our lives who has brought us much happiness. We are proud of you and love you very much.

Leslie,
On Christmas Day when you were born, we thought that it had been the perfect Christmas. You were the best gift any parent could ask for. Every day of our lives since then you have brought nothing but joy and happiness to us.
You have grown into a beautiful, intelligent, and caring person.

Words cannot express how proud we are of you and how much we love you. We know you have what it takes to accomplish anything you set out to do. Thanks for being such a wonderful daughter.

WE LOVE YOU TOO MUCH!

Brian,
You have grown up to be the perfect role model for me. Thanks for being the brother that you are to me. Thanks for all the good advice and always being there when I needed you most. Thanks for letting me cruise town with you, too. If I were to think back to what it would be like without you, I don't think it would be much fun at all.

Good luck in all you do. Look to God for all your answers. Congratulations and best of luck! Keep up the good work. Remember if you ever need me, you know I'm here for you. I'll miss you.

Love ya always,
Rachel

Brian,
You have been just like a big brother to me. Thank you for giving me all those rides to school and everything else. Congratulations and best of luck in all you do. Keep up the good work.

Love,

Emmet,
From the day you were born, our lives have been truly blessed. We could never say in words how watching you grow and turn into the young man you are today has given our lives special joy.

Wherever you go and whatever path you may choose in life, always remember that we who love and believe in you will always take great pride in the special person you are!

AMBER

Chandni,

Where other people have drifted apart, we have only gotten closer since we started high school. You were always there if I needed someone. You always knew the right thing to do and gave the right advice. I didn't always listen, but you were right. I am able to tell you anything and you always understand. You have helped me through everything from people, to application letters, to life altogether. I will forever be here for you as long as you need me; it doesn't matter if you want me to cook for you, or if you want to talk. It doesn't matter where we end up in life we will always be together. I am always here.

Amber

Amber.

Well, well. It is finally time for us to part. It will be harder than I thought, for we have grown so much closer. We have had a lot of laughs, and a few more tears. Some of my most vivid memories involve you, or something that reminds me of you. Thank you for always being there to listen to me whine, as well as to set me straight. You are the one who taught me it is okay to cry ... and I am forever grateful. This is only the beginning of our friendship, and exciting times are ahead. If you ever need anything, say, a job or two, you know where to find me!

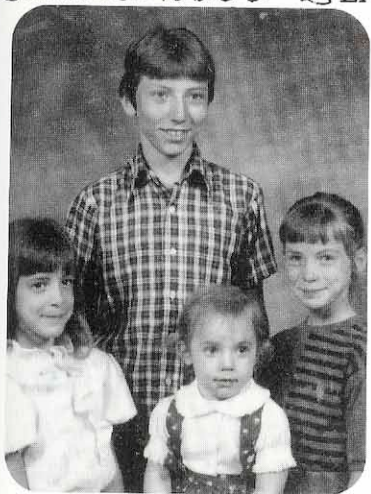

Love and Thanks,
Chandni

KIMBERLY MILHOLEN

Kim,

We know it hasn't been easy having an older brother and two older sisters that were always giving advice. But we want you to know we are happy for you. We couldn't have a better little sister.

Congratulations.

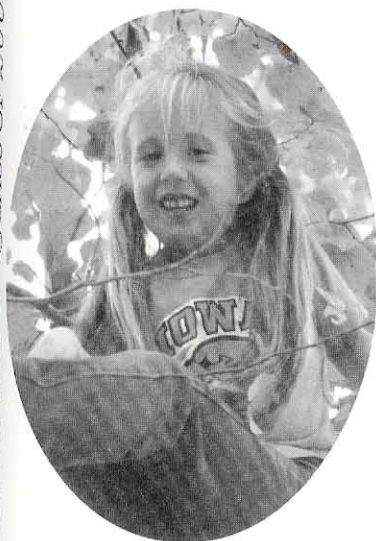

*We Love You,
Michael, Shelia, & Christi*

Kimberly,

Seventeen years ago, God brought a special little girl into our lives. You have been a source of joy and pride to us. It seems such a short time ago that you started school. Now senior graduation is just around the corner, and you'll be a young adult with many challenges to face. May you continue to be blessed with a loving family and good friends.

*May God Bless You,
Mom & Dad*

Tommie Lea McFall

Sis,

It seems like only yesterday I was rocking you in my arms. Now it's time to let you go. If I could change anything about you — it would be nothing at all.

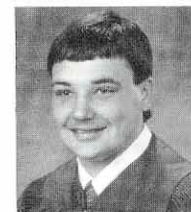

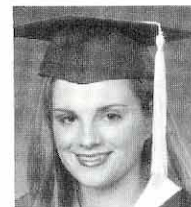

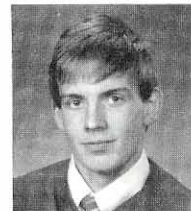

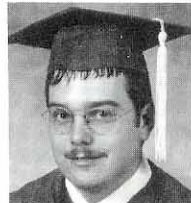

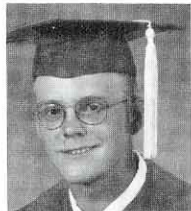

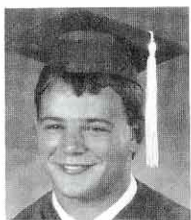

You have grown up to be a very beautiful girl. You have been not only a great daughter; you have been my friend.

Always remember you can be anything you put your mind to, no matter how hard it might seem. I will always be by your side no matter what life brings.

Love, Mom

SHELLEY SMART

Shelley,

You are our 1st blessing given to us on that cold night in January 1982. Since then you have filled our home and hearts with much joy. You have made us proud.

The years have passed too quickly — and as we think of letting you go, we pray that you will always listen to yourself, not others. Your kindness, your determination, and your love for people are things that no one can take from you. You are such a beautiful person, both inside and out, and I know with God by your side you can face life's obstacles and overcome them.

We love you more than you'll ever know and we will always be here for you — every step of the way.

Love,
Mom and Dad

P.S. You now have two special guardian angels to watch over you.

Shell,

What can I say, you're finally a senior! It's pretty hard to believe that you're not going to be at school with me anymore. You have helped me through so many things, and I just wanted to say Thank You. Best of luck in all that you do. Look to God for guidance, and He will show you the way. Keep out of trouble at college and be good!!! Thank you for being my big sister!!!

I ♥ U
Kristen

Amy Flowers

Amy,

You have given us so much joy and happiness through the years. About eighteen years ago, on May 17th, 1982, God blessed us with you, our second daughter. We are proud to be your mother and father because you are a wonderful daughter. You are very pretty and very smart, and we love you so much. Remember we'll always be here for you if you need us. Pray, and stay close to the Lord; He will take care of you always. We wish you the best life has to offer because you deserve it.

*We love you,
Mom and Dad*

Amy,

I want to let you know how proud I am to have you as my sister and of your accomplishments. Congrats! You are very special to me and will always be. I wish you all the best in life. Please look to God for all your needs and remember He's always there. Thanks for always being there for me and know that I will never leave your side. You are my sister and my one true best friend. You will never know how much you mean to me.

Love always,
Christy

Mark Brigance

Mark,

From the moment you first put your foot on your tricycle, we knew things were about to change. They did — your toys changed. It seems like overnight you went from tricycles to four-wheel-drive trucks. We wondered just what we were going to do with this boy. We are still wondering that same thing today.

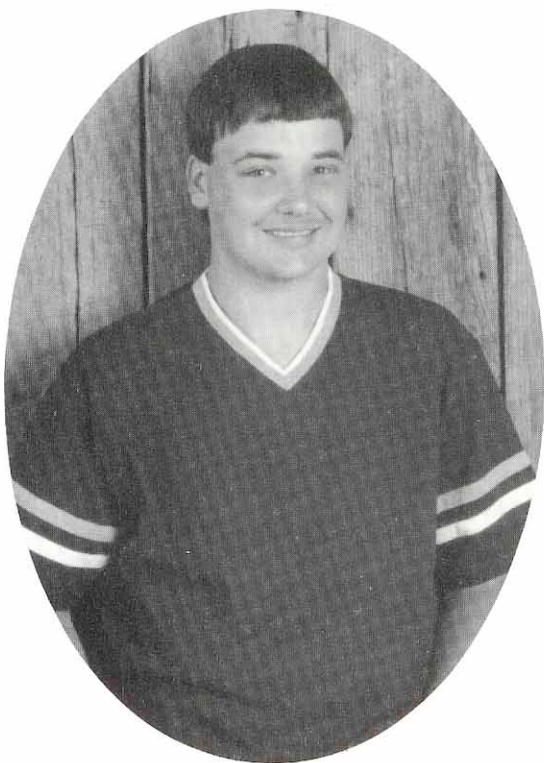

From the beginning, you always had to be in the middle of things. That is one quality that has kept our lives exciting and often a challenge. From the time you jumped out of the back of a Chevrolet Duall going 50 miles per hour to the times you've got home from hunting and brought back an empty gun, a cut finger, and a lot of dirt, we have been there watching you. You have managed to grow into a man that we will always love and will always keep some form of first aid for.

As you make your way throughout life, remember, just like your four-wheel-drive trucks, you have managed to clear a path for yourself, and you have made it easier for those who follow you to find their way.

*We Love You,
Mom & Dad*

A Daughter Brings So Much Joy to Life

Having a daughter, well, everyone knows

Means makeup and phone calls
And yes, panty hose.

It means very much,
If you must know the truth,
Like holding a bicycle,
Wiggling a tooth,

Helping her color, teaching to share,
Cutting the bubble gum out of her hair,

Lending the car and keeping quite calm,

Taking good pictures the night of the prom.

It means being nice and all of that stuff.

Though none of her boyfriends
Are quite good enough.
And then when she's ready for life on her own,

It's telling yourself
To let go now, she's grown.
Having a daughter means so many things,

And it's one of the greatest joys
Life ever brings.

Love You Very much,
Mom, P.J., Carrie & Chesley

Dear Amber,

You will always be special in my heart. I wish I could have

What is a Son?

From the moment his parents are told, "It's a boy!" a son is a source of excitement and joy. His needs are important, his wishes are low, and the love he inspires can fill you with awe.

Very soon he'll be exploring the world around, and filling his pockets with things that he found! He keeps the house hopping with laughter and noise, and makes you keep saying, "Well, boys will be boys!"

As years pass years, he goes through many stages, and some of them seem like they're lasting for ages; 'till all of a sudden his folks realize, he's grown up overnight — isn't that a surprise?

And you can't keep from smiling to think of the fun that's been yours since you raised such a wonderful son!

I hope your high school career has been as great and memorable as mine. We have always been real close and have many great memories. I want to wish you the best of luck in whatever you do. I just want to leave you with these few things to remember more than anything:

- 1.) Put God first.
- 2.) Do not break things (You know what I'm talking about).
- 3.) Always take care of girl problems for your brother.
- 4.) UT Knoxville is AWESOME (remember that when choosing your college)!

Cassie Brasher

Well, Cassie, what can I say? My little sister is graduating from high school. It's hard to believe that we're both grown up. Over the years we have had our share of good times and bad, but mostly good. If I had the chance to take any of it back, I wouldn't change a thing.

You have always been there for me whenever I have needed you and when no one else was. You've listened patiently when I would cry over some guy, no matter how tired you were of hearing it. You are one of the two best friends that I have ever had. I don't think you realize how much you really mean to me. I am very proud of you and I love you very much.

Since you're about to go to college I thought I'd give you a few survival tips to help you through it:

- 1.) When you go on a date you have to go to super Wal-Mart. It's a must.
- 2.) There is always a guy out there who is better for you than the two you-know-who's.
- 3.) Try not to hit any pedestrians. I know you like to hit rabbits.
- 4.) If you're ever feeling down in the dumps, just remember how much fun "the four of us" had at Shop-Rite in the rain.
- 5.) And always remember that I love you very much and I will always be there for you if you need me.

Love,
Charity

Cassie,

Well, you did it! You went from being my little butterball to a beautiful buttercup, bright and cheerful.

I have always been so proud of you because you always try to be the best in everything you do — from water painting with your little-girl fingers, to playing ball, to your schoolwork, to your jobs. If you could be just what I could dream a little girl could grow up to be, I wouldn't change a thing about you.

I know you sometimes think I don't love you as much as your sisters. But I do — just in a different way, because all of you are different. Because of you, my life has been blessed. I do miss the little girl who liked to cuddle up on the couch on Sunday afternoon. Back then, in your eyes, I knew everything. Well, now you know different — I don't know everything, but I do know that I love you with all my heart and soul, and if you need me, I'll be there no matter what.

I know that you'll be great in whatever you do in life, so spread your wings and be all you can be. I know you'll be the best. Remember,

Mommy Loves You.

Shelli Reeves

Shelli,

It's hard to realize that you are a senior and soon will be starting a new life. It seems like yesterday that you and Dustin came into our lives. Everyone told me that I would have double trouble, but they were wrong. It has been double pleasure. To see you grown and become the person you are is a blessing within itself. Always, Shelli, keep the love you have for God, your family, your friends, and your love for life. And don't ever lose that wonderful and special personality that you have. I am honored to be your mother, but most of all, to be your best friend. To have a daughter like you and to be able to laugh and cry with you is something a mother will never forget - and yes, I'll always give you five more minutes. You never made me feel left out of your life through your teenage years, and I will always treasure our talks together and the bond that we have. As you start a whole new life, I sincerely hope you are blessed in everything that you do throughout your life and know that we are always here for you.

For 17 years we have shared a very special bond that not too many people share. We have shared much laughter, joy, and even sometimes, a few tears. If I ever need someone to talk to, I knew I could always count on you. If it was for a little advice or a helping hand, you were always there. Don't ever forget all the memories we have made — from the days at the river to all the nights at grandmother and granddaddy's house. No matter where life may take us — you will always be "my favorite cuz"!!

Friendship is a golden chain — the links are friends so dear, and like a rare and precious jewel, it's treasured more each year ...

It's clasped together firmly with a love that's deep and true, and it's rich with happy memories and fond recollections, too ...

Time can't destroy its beauty, for as long as memory lives, years can't erase the pleasure that the joy of friendship gives ...

And the golden chain of friendship is a strong and blessed tie — binding kindred hearts together as the years go passing by.

Well, Neila, you're finally a senior! Congratulations! We've had some pretty crazy times the past nine years. We've fought a lot, but now we are more like sisters than stepsisters!

Thanks for being there and taking up for me through the years. You're not only my sister, but also my best friend. I'm going to miss you when you go off to college. Here are some things to remember:

- 1.) Be careful with them fists!
- 2.) Remember what you told me about being yourself!
- 3.) Stay away from those loser guys (You know who I'm talking about)!
- 4.) Don't think so much!
- 5.) Little ones are the best to have!

Well, sis, have fun and be careful!

Love ya,

After four years we have become great friends
And though high school is over, our friendship will never end
All the great memories that we have had
Have been worth it, even though some were bad
Labor Day weekend was one of those times
When Jami almost made us lose our minds
The swim we had in October ended up in a funny sight
All because of two towels that came up missing that night
Shelley Probe for once was not involved
But our 1 AM adventure finally got solved
On the way back from the Huntingdon game that night
Rosemary couldn't quit seeing those blue flashing lights
During the parade on homecoming day
Emily showed her fun side in a very different way
From all of the get-togethers to the early AM talks
It will keep the four of us together through life's long walk

Friends, forever and always
Emily, Rosemary, Jami, and Shelley

Britney,

On December 29, 1981, God gave me exactly what I'd asked Him for. Although I really just wanted a healthy baby — deep in my heart I hoped for a blue-eyed, blonde baby girl. God filled my order perfectly when He gave you to me. I'm sure He knew that I would never have another child, so He made you special.

We have shared laughter and tears. You have been through a lot in your life. There are many things that I wish I could make better. I am so glad that you talk to me, and share your feelings with me. I pray that we can always be this close. Remember that life is not always easy. There will be bad times. Don't get discouraged. There will ALWAYS be happier times down the road.

No matter what happens in your life, you have my unconditional love. I will be there for you. Every year up until now, I have known what the next year held in store for you. I knew where you would go to school, who your friends would be, where you would spend holidays, and I knew you would be sleeping in your bedroom at the end of the hall. Knowing all of this was a comfort to me. Soon you will be graduating and no longer under my wing. It scares me that I don't know where you will be or what you will be doing this time next year, so I pray that God will guide you through your choices and decisions in life (I will still put in my 2 cents' worth when I can).

Good luck in your new life. I am so proud of you! You are a good kid. I love you with all my heart and I will always be there for you.

Wesley Brasher

March 16, 1982. Oh what wondrous joy; you were brought into our lives! Your dad and I were both beside ourselves. As soon as you were born, all I can remember Chris Brasher exclaiming was, "It's a boy, it's a boy!" As nurses practically held him in the room so we could tell everyone together, I looked at you and thought, "You looked exactly like your grandfather," we'd lost only months before and how ecstatic he would have been, and yet somehow, I felt in my heart, he knew.

Where has the time gone, it was only yesterday your dad was strolling you back and forth in front of the TV as I rushed around making sure your world was as perfect as I could. What precious little time he had with us, but oh what "quality" time. You had more love at 4 years old, than may children get in a lifetime, for we both poured "ourselves and Christ" into you.

Then came life with Mama, Wesley, and Jon. I longed to fulfill every dream you had. We three have always been a team. My special "gifts", God had left upon this earth to give me a reason to continue. How witty you were even as a small child, exclaiming you were now then man of the house and if you married and got the wrong girl, you'd throw her away and get somebody else.

I've always felt "daddy" watched over us. I've watched you grown into a young man. Handsome, loving, kind, and giving, and I've never been so proud. I love you more than you can ever know. My heart fills with it every time I hear you laugh and see that big smile. You are my world, sweetheart, but maybe your dad says it best in a prayer he wrote for you some 13 years ago.

Love,
Mom

Wesley,

I hold your face in the hands of love and look into your eyes. How many millions of blessings are wrapped up in your face! How many times will my heart melt and my flesh tingle at the joy and love I feel toward my little boy! I have riches beyond measure by looking into your face!

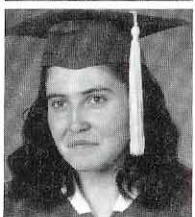

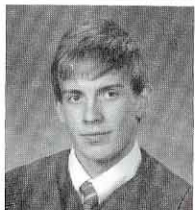

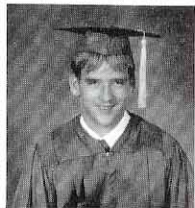

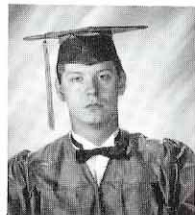

I'll see you become a man. So strong, handsome, healthy, and intelligent. I'll cry because I know the hurts that life will give you, but I will be so proud of the way you give back the hope, faith and courage of another Christian soldier. I long more than all else that you be like Christ in every way. He is the son and the stars that shine in life's day and night. He is the glory and honor that is beyond compare. The world does not know this; it is a hidden treasure that we will share with as many as will take hold of it.

I love you, son. God has blessed me more than I can count and more than I deserve.

I love you,
Dad

Chandni & Wendy

My Dear Chandni,

Oh my, this is so overwhelming, I don't know what to say that will not embarrass you. You are so sensitive to these things. It doesn't really matter, though. You know how we are. Hopefully you won't forget. This is purely a publication of our friendship. I want everyone, though, to know how selfless you are. You keep it such a secret. It's very ironic how your darkest secrets are nice things that you've done that you never let anyone know. That's where we differ. Most people whine for days if they ever have to disrupt their daily lives for the good of someone else, but you never make your sacrifices known. You will not allow anyone to compliment you on your hard work & dedication.

I never would have thought that we'd be as close as we are. The smart girl & the little freak girl; who would've thought we'd be the best of friends?

You give the best compliments, you know? You're so truthful, smart, pretty, & witty even. You are these things & everyone knows it is true. It shouldn't hurt or embarrass you to be told that.

I love you, Chandni, and maybe someday we will learn to love ourselves.

Love to all the Chaps,
— Wendy

Wendy,

Girl, I don't know what I am going to do without you. If there is no one like you at my school, then I will never make it through my hard classes! You always tried to teach me not to worry and be carefree. I know I'm not the best student, but it is starting to wear off on me little by little. Hopefully, we will both be in Nashville and can visit each other to escape everybody else. We have helped each other through hard times, and will continue to do so. When you get down, just find your happy place and make sure there is a family portrait nearby. Never stop questioning life; it has made you the strong, beautiful friend I love.

Nashville bound,
Chandni

Amy + Amber

Amy,
Well it's over. We are going to be on our own. You have always been there to tell me what's good and bad about me or to give me advice. We won't grow apart though now. Fourth grade was long ago and we have been through so much since then from fights to good times (beach, shopping, youth conferences, dances) to small tiffs (a person you very rarely about sorry). You were always there for me though. We have done so much, from slumber parties, to movie parties, to riding around town. I know we have drifted tremendously from what we used to be but we won't be that way again cause we have both changed. We will be close again though. We are now. We have so many memories, from playing with the water hose to staying up all night eating those chocolate things to screaming at boys with knives to get in the house. That we would never forget one another. I will always be there and I know I can count on you. I will listen to your advice now though.
Amber

Amber,

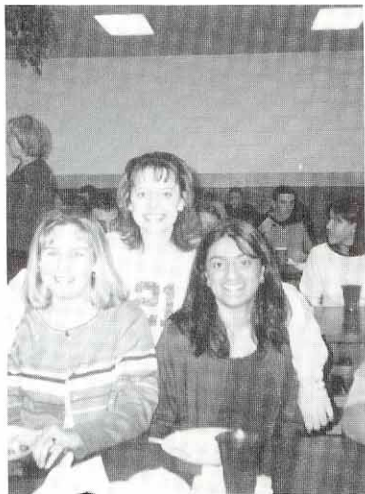

Where should I start? I guess back in 4th grade when you had to switch seats with that girl. Since then we've had 9 memorable years as friends, some perhaps more memorable than others. I'm not saying it's all been easy so far, but the true test comes now. You know, the one where we each go our separate ways. Even though the paths we choose may not seem that different at first, they will be. They may lead us to different schools, professions, and maybe even eventually to different states. No matter what happens, remember to hold on to the memories we share and all the good, sad, and even the bad times. They are all too numerous to count. The same things that tore us apart have always brought us back together. I truly believe that no matter where life takes us, the friendship we have built will bring us back together again. I ♥ YA!

Looking Back At The Year

Believing In Yourself

Standing for what you believe in regardless of the odds against you and the pressure that tears at your resistance means courage

*keeping a smile on your face
when inside you feel like dying for the sake of supporting others means strength*

*stopping at nothing and doing what in your heart
you know is right
means determination* doing more than is expected to make another's life a little more bearable without uttering a single complaint means compassion

helping a friend in need no matter the time or effort to the best of your ability means loyalty

*giving more than you have and expecting nothing
but gratitude in return
means selflessness*

*holding your head high and being the best you know you can be when life seems to fall apart at your feet and facing each difficulty with the confidence that time will bring you better tomorrows
and never giving up
means believing in yourself ...*

Last Class of the Millenium

I sit upon the river bank and think about these few short years that have passed by — they came and went and were heard no more. How did I come this far, from being so shy? Our first year was the worst, but our last year was the best.

How forgotten are the times that came before this rest. These times will be forgotten, and these times I should always know.

I watch the water as it swiftly rolls on, and know that it will be there long after I'm gone. Before me lie many roads, and each one knows what my future holds. When I grow up, these times will be far passed; only I wish this youthfulness could last.

So when I am gone and long forgotten, these times at Riverside will go on. The thoughts of what we did will not matter.

For our lives are not one and the same any more, not entangled with the ongoing of our beloved school. We shall remember our beloved school, but will it remember us?

— Wesley Brasher and Jamey Fisher
